

I love listening to Air1 radio station as it broadcasts in Tennessee. Air 1 plays hip christian music with a positive message. This music appeals to young people like high schools and local college students. College students are confronted by so many issues from violence to sexually transmitted diseases to suicide. Air1 reminds people that we have a reason to live and that God loves us.